Welcome to Booker T. Washington Elementary School

On behalf of the staff, I hope you have a great 2016-2017 school year. Plan now to attend Family First Tuesdays on the first Tuesday of each month. We try hard to give you a variety of activities and experiences that will support you and your child’s learning. These events provide opportunities for you to socialize with administrators, teachers, and other Washington families. We hope that these experiences will strengthen our school community. Check your Washington Weekly Parent Memos each Monday for a calendar of many activities and events.

I would like to invite you to visit and utilize our Parent Center which is located in Room 116. Check in at the office and ask to use the parent center key. There is a computer available for your use. You may use and browse through our instructional tools and booklets. We have resources from the community that you will find helpful. We will continue to add resources that will help you and your child/children to be the best you can be! There are additional resources available for checkout in the Media Center.

This information packet contains our Parental Involvement Plan, Parenting Tips for School Success, PTA Information, Staff Contact Information, and other items you may find useful. Please review the plan and if you have other ideas, please call me at (501) 447-6761 or email me at Marilyn.johnson2@lrsd.org.

Washington staff recognizes that parents play a critical role in assisting student learning. Please let us know how we can assist you and support you in this role. We look forward to working with you! Let’s make the 2016-2017 the best year ever by working together as a team! Thanks for your participation in your child’s / children’s education. Together we can make a difference. All hands on Deck!

Sincerely,

Marilyn J. Johnson

Washington Elementary School distributes a weekly newsletter developed by the Parent Involvement Committee, students, principal, assistant principal, teachers and parent volunteers in order to communicate to our parents ways to increase their involvement in supporting classroom instruction.

Katherine Snyder / Morgan Ealy is responsible for getting out the newsletter. (501) 447-6700
Parents will be able to access their child’s grades and progress on a weekly basis using Edline. Ms. Carol Page, Attendance Registrar, will assist you with Edline Passwords. (501) 447-6709. Each teacher can be contacted via e-mail or telephone. (501) 447-6700

Parents are given a form to sign and return regarding the School-Parent-Student Compact. The stakeholders will meet and discuss the compact. Katherine Snyder / Morgan Ealy (501) 447-6700

Our family information packets consisting of Washington’s Parent Involvement Plan, a list of activities, a list of teachers and the grades they teach, along with the school policies and procedures will be available online and at Family First Tuesdays' events. Marilyn Johnson (501) 447-6761 is responsible for disseminating the information packets.

Washington Elementary School will plan meetings at various times to increase parent involvement, engage families, and build staff and parent capacity. Some of those meetings are listed below and can be found in the calendar of the weekly memo along with other school events and meetings.

Booker T. Washington Elementary School is a member of Johns Hopkins University National Network of Partnership Schools (NNPS). The NNPS School, Family and Community Partnership model is designed to enhance parent participation and involvement in the school and community. The model is researched based and references six types of involvement: Parenting, Communicating, Volunteering, Student Learning, Decision-Making and Collaborating with the Community. To support the six types of involvement, Washington Elementary School participates on the LRSD NNPS Central East School Cluster Team. Marilyn Johnson (501) 447-6761

The National PTA's Parents' Guide to Student Success

The National PTA’s Parents’ Guide to Student Success is intended to clarify what the Common Core Standards are and what students are to learn in each grade. The PTA has produced a guide for each grade K-8 and two guides per grade 9-12 (one for English language arts/literacy and one for mathematics). The guides are also available in Spanish and include activities that parents can do at home to support their child’s learning and methods for helping parents build stronger relationships with their child’s teacher. The high school guides also include tips for planning for college and career.

The guides may be accessed at this link: http://pta.org/content.cfm?ItemNumber=2796

Epstein’s Six Types of Parent Involvement

Dr. Joyce Epstein of Johns Hopkins University has developed a framework for defining six different types of parent involvement. This framework assists educators in developing school and family partnership programs.

1. Parenting: Help all families establish home environments to support children as students.
   - Parent education and other courses or training for parents (e.g., GED, college credit, family literacy).
   - Family support programs to assist families with health, nutrition, and other services.
   - Home visits at transition points to elementary, middle, and high school.

2. Communicating: Design effective forms of school-to-home and home-to-school communications about school programs and children’s progress.
   - Conferences with every parent at least once a year.
   - Language translators to assist families as needed.
   - Regular schedule of useful notices, memos, phone calls, newsletters, and other communications.

3. Volunteering: Recruit and organize parent help and support.
   - School/classroom volunteer program to help teachers, administrators, students, and other parents.
   - Parent room or family center for volunteer work, meetings, and resources for families.
   - Annual postcard survey to identify all available talents, times, and locations of volunteers.
4. Learning at home: Provide information and ideas to families about how to help students at home with homework and other curriculum-related activities, decisions, and planning.

   - Information for families on skills required for students in all subjects at each grade.
   - Information on homework policies and how to monitor and discuss schoolwork at home.
   - Family participation in setting student goals each year and in planning for college or work.

5. Decision making: Include parents in school decisions, developing parent leaders and representatives.

   - Active PTA/PTO or other parent organizations, advisory councils, or committees for parent leadership and participation.
   - Independent advocacy groups to lobby for school reform and improvements.
   - Networks to link all families with parent representatives.

6. Collaborating with the community: Identify and integrate resources and services from the community to strengthen school programs, family practices, and student learning and development.

   - Information for students and families on community health, cultural, recreational, social support, and other programs/services.
   - Information on community activities that link to learning skills and talents, including summer programs for students.

Opening Doors Literacy Pledge Card for Parents

I, _____________________________________________________ (parent/guardian) understand that
• I am my child’s first teacher.
• Reading is key to my child’s success in school and in life.
• I can help my child develop brain power with the activities I provide outside of school.
• Every day my children miss school, they are losing a chance to learn.

I pledge to:
• Read, talk, and sing to my child every day.
• Encourage play that involves naming and describing.
• Encourage my children to ask questions about things they see: What? Why? How? What if?
• Teach my children to love reading by having books in our home.
• Take my children to the library every week to pick out books they want to read.
• Help my children develop the habit of on-time attendance.
• Talk to my child’s teacher regularly on how we can help at home.
• Talk to other parents in my community about the importance of reading.

My child’s name: _____________________ Date: _________ Signature: _____________________________________

Practical Tips
You don’t always need to read. A child’s love of reading grows from language, knowledge, and interest.
• Find after-school activities that promote reading and learning.
• Help your children develop the habit of on-time attendance.
• Tell your own stories using pictures in books, magazines, and newspapers.
• Watch and discuss educational TV together, such as nature programs and public television.
• Talk with your children while you’re cooking, shopping, or walking with them.
• Get library cards for every family member. Make reading a part of family life.
• Tell stories about something that happened when you were young.
• Before reading, share the cover and title of the book. Ask your child to guess what’s inside.
• While you read, pause often to ask and answer questions.
• When reading with your child, take turns reading sentences and paragraphs. If your child makes a mistake, don’t interrupt. Wait your turn and then make your point.
• After reading, talk to your child about the story and ask what made it interesting.
• Always praise your child’s efforts and progress.
• Honor homework time and make a special place for your child to study and learn.
• Make these activities a regular and happy part of your child’s daily life.

READING WITH YOUR CHILD

20 MINUTES A DAY IS ALL IT TAKES TO BUILD KEY READING

 Here are 6 ways to build a better reader during the elementary school year

1. Create reading habits and read every day.
2. Talk about pictures and ask questions while reading.
4. Share different kinds of books (stories, nonfiction, poetry)
5. Read favorite books again and again.
6. Read with expression...it’s more fun!

GOOD READERS are made on the laps of parents.

PARENTING TIPS FOR SCHOOL SUCCESS (For elementary school children)

Make the most of the school day
- Make sure that your child gets enough sleep
- Help your child have a place for school bags and supplies so that he/she arrives at school with homework and other supplies.
- Be sure that your child arrives on time for class and arrives early enough to finish breakfast if it is eaten at school
- See that your child eats breakfast either at home or at school
- Be sure that your child is present for the complete instructional day—7:50 to 2:35.

Meet the teacher
- Tell teachers how they can contact you during the day or evening.
- Share your hopes & dreams for your children. Ask how you can help your children succeed.
- Ask how you can volunteer.
- Ask if you can collect & bring supplies.
- Ask for book recommendations for reading at home.

Conversation builds the brain
- Talk together constantly. In the car, over meals, all the time. Every conversation builds your child’s brainpower.
- Remember the power of the dinner table! Children in families who usually eat together are 40% more likely to get mainly A’s and B’s in school than kids who rarely eat together. Having positive conversations boosts your child’s ability to achieve.
- Take photos of everyday life – looking at photos always starts conversations.
- Read together everywhere you go. Books—yes, but also anything you see in everyday life: signs, cereal boxes, etc.

How much sleep does my child need?
- Ask your teacher how alert your child remains in class. If the teacher reports your child is too tired, he or she needs more sleep.
- Ask your child’s teacher for advice on bedtimes. Don’t worry about what “everyone else” does. You’re the leader.
- Many parents now stay up late with their children watching TV. But your child needs much more sleep than you, so get them off to bed at the right time.

Turn your home into a learning center
- Reading is power. Read with your child every day. Model reading for your child—let them see you reading, too.
- Provide a quiet place for your children to study.
- Have a set time daily for homework or learning activities when the TV is off.

Get tuned into the power of positive discipline
- Positive discipline provides the structure and skills children need to succeed in school.
- The children in a family practicing positive discipline enjoy higher self-esteem. They feel loved, secure, and have a sense of belonging.

Help Your Child Succeed in School: Build the Habit of Good Attendance Early

School success goes hand in hand with good attendance!

DID YOU KNOW?
- Starting in kindergarten, too many absences can cause children to fall behind in school.
- Missing 10 percent (or about 18 days) can make it harder to learn to read.
- Students can still fall behind if they miss just a day or two days every few weeks.
- Being late to school may lead to poor attendance.
- Absences can affect the whole classroom if the teacher has to slow down learning to help children catch up.

Attending school regularly helps children feel better about school—and themselves. Start building this habit in preschool so they learn right away that going to school on time, every day is important. Good attendance will help children do well in high school, college, and at work.

WHAT YOU CAN DO
- Set a regular bed time and morning routine.
- Lay out clothes and pack backpacks the night before.
- Find out what day school starts and make sure your child has the required shots.
- Introduce your child to her teachers and classmates before school starts to help her transition.
- Don’t let your child stay home unless she is truly sick. Keep in mind complaints of a stomach ache or headache can be a sign of anxiety and not a reason to stay home.
- If your child seems anxious about going to school, talk to teachers, school counselors, or other parents for advice on how to make her feel comfortable and excited about learning.
- Develop back-up plans for getting to school if something comes up. Call on a family member, a neighbor, or another parent.
- Avoid medical appointments and extended trips when school is in session.

Dear LRSD Parent/Guardian,

Your efforts in completing the following survey are needed to support effective ways for involving, you, as parents in the work of helping your child to achieve his or her best at school. We know that your input is essential to the future of all student growth. We appreciate your feedback.

Remember, parent input does make the difference in the success of all schools. Thanks again for your valuable help.

Directions: The purpose of this survey is to gather information from all parents about how well the school communicates with parents of children who attend LRSD schools. Please take a moment to check or circle your answer to each question, realizing that your answers will be used to improve parent involvement activities. Please submit this survey to your school.

Please circle or check ONE answer per question.
